If not otherwise note on resume, list pertinent professional, trade, business or civic activities and (if applicable) offices held; please exclude, if you wish, any which may indicate race, color, religion, sex or national origin.

I understand and agree:

1. Any material misrepresentation of fact in my application may be justification for refusal of employment or, if already employed, termination of employment.
2. It is my understanding that the Martha's Vineyard Land Bank Commission will make a thorough investigation of my work history and may verify all data given in my application for employment, related papers or oral interviews. I authorize such an investigation. I understand that falsification of data so given or other derogatory information discovered as a result of such investigation may prevent me from being hired or, if already hired, may subject me to immediate dismissal.

3. I agree that my employment may be terminated by the Martha's Vineyard Land Bank Commission at any time without liability for wages or salary except as may have been earned at the date of such termination.
4. Although the Martha's Vineyard Land Bank Commission makes every effort to accommodate individual preferences, agency needs may at times make the following conditions mandatory: overtime, shift work, a rotating work schedule, or a work schedule other than Monday through Friday. I understand and accept these as conditions of my continuing employment.

I further understand that this is an application for employment and that no employment contract is being offered at this time.

I understand that if I am employed, such employment is for no definite period of time and that the Martha's Vineyard Land Bank Commission can change wages, benefits and conditions at any time.

The Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA) requires that applicants produce documentation showing that they are citizens of the United States of America or that they have legal authorization to work in the USA. Should you be offered the position for which you are applying and should you subsequently choose to accept the offer, you should be prepared to confirm your residency status relative to the IRCA. This documentation will not be required of you during the interview, nor will any questions be asked about national origin.

I have read and understand the above
